

Second Circular

XXIVth ANNUAL FORUM OF YOUNG LEGAL HISTORIANS

Norms and Legal Practice: There and Back Again

14 – 17 June 2018

Warsaw, Poland

Dear Colleagues,

This is the Second Circular of the 24th Forum of Young Legal Historians, to be held at the University of Warsaw, Poland, between 14 and 17 June 2018.

First and foremost we would like to inform you that the President of Warsaw, Prof. Hanna Gronkiewicz-Waltz has graciously granted her honorary patronage to our Forum. We are grateful to the Warsaw authorities for this sign of appreciation of the international community of young legal historians.

Moreover, the First Circular has met with a great interest of our community and we have received numerous queries concerning the organisational details. This Second Circular aims to answer at least some of them.

Registration and Fee

Please be informed that the online registration has already begun. The registration form is available at the Forum website (<http://forum2018aylh.uw.edu.pl/registration/>).

We highly recommend that you pay the Forum fee before 1st April 2018, as payments will be possible only exceptionally during the Forum itself. Please note that all transactions must be made either with a credit card through the Dotpay service (the link to the payment form is generated automatically during the registration and sent in a separate e-mail on special request), or via a bank transfer.

Details of the bank account are as follows:

Owner of the account: Fundacja im. Rafala Taubenschlaga

Account number: PL 37 1090 1883 0000 0001 0772 6939

S.W.I.F.T.: WBKPPLPP

Description of the money transfer: Name of the Participant, Forum Fee

The bank fee must be borne by the sender.

No cash transactions are possible.

Abstracts

The deadline for the abstract submission has been prolonged until 28 February 2018. Abstracts should contain no more than 200 words. Since the abstracts will also be published, we strongly recommend that authors whose abstracts are submitted not in their native language to have the text professionally proofread before presenting.

The Programme

At the moment we are only able to present a preliminary information concerning the Forum Programme. The detailed Programme shall be available on Forum website shortly after the closing date for abstract submissions.

The registration and opening session will take place on the 14th of June 2018 in the afternoon. There are four main sessions planned during the Forum (two for each day). The sessions shall be grouped according to the chronological and thematic order.

Accommodation

The organisers have booked rooms and negotiated special rates for Forum participants in several hotels, ranging from exclusive to tourist class, in the vicinity of the University of Warsaw. Information, links and registration forms are available on the Forum website (<http://forum2018aylh.uw.edu.pl/accomodationguidelines/>). The participants are encouraged to book early in order to be sure of getting the accommodation of their choice as the number of pre-booked rooms is limited.

Social Events

Cocktail Reception

The President of Warsaw, Mrs. Hanna Gronkiewicz-Waltz would like to welcome the participants of 24th Annual Forum of Young Legal Historians in the city of Warsaw on Friday, 15 June.

Excursions

We have envisaged four post-Forum excursions. All of them will start on Sunday, 17 June, in the morning:

- Royal Castle in Warsaw (and Royal Warsaw);
- Museum of King Jan III's Palace at Wilanów (and Royal gardens);
- Museum of the History of Polish Jews POLIN (and Jewish district in Warsaw);
- PKiN, i.e. Palace of Culture and Science (and socialistic Warsaw).

The detailed program of the excursions has already been published on the Forum website along with the registration forms. If you are willing to take part in one of the organised excursions please fill in the relevant form through our webpage!

We sincerely hope that you will be able to join us for the 24th Annual Forum of Young Legal Historians and we look forward to welcoming you to Warsaw in June, 2018.
