

XXIVth Annual Forum of Young Legal Historians
Warsaw 16th June 2018

The influence of the practice of marine insurance concerning the risks on the first insurance contract legislation in France

A. Introduction

- I. State of research*
- II. Historical definition of the insurance contract*

B. The practice of insurance in France

- I. Historical development of the marine insurance contracts*
- II. The insured risks in the policies*
 1. Marseille
 2. Bordeaux
 3. Rouen

C. The influence of insurance practice on insurance contract law

- I. Included risks*
 1. Ordonnance de la marine 1681
 2. Guidon de la mer
 3. Marine insurance contracts
 4. Code du commerce 1807
- II. Excluded risks*
 1. Alteration of the route or the voyage
 2. Substitution of the Vessel
 3. Fault of the insured
 4. Barratry of the master

D. Conclusion

European Research Council
Established by the European Commission
Supporting top researchers from anywhere in the world